

Mardyke Arena UCC cuts payroll processing time by 66% with Time & Attendance

"The system has completely streamlined our processes, saving time and improving efficiency across the board."

Mairead Scott-Baird, Finance Manager

Introduction

Managing staff at Mardyke Arena UCC meant juggling complex pay structures and paper-based systems. Manual spreadsheets and outdated processes slowed everything down, leading to time-consuming payroll, administrative headaches, and limited visibility for both staff and leadership.

After evaluating several different vendors, Mardyke Arena chose OneAdvanced's Time & Attendance to streamline their processes. The system's intuitive platform made it easy for staff to access rosters and check holiday balances in seconds, while managers gained the tools they needed to oversee shifts and resolve anomalies. Features like tailored pay rates and seamless payroll exports immediately lightened the administrative load.

Simplifying work for everyone

Switching to Time & Attendance made a real difference for Mardyke, including:

- Seamlessly handling their complex pay structure
- Improved payroll processing time by 66% (from 3 days to 1)
- Automated holiday calculations, saving 48 hours per year
- Line managers better able to manage their teams with greater visibility
- Employees gained instant access to their schedules, leave requests and entitlement
- Responsive support from OneAdvanced

Looking ahead

As Mardyke Arena continues to grow, the team is now exploring advanced reporting and the new mobile app to further enhance the way they work. With OneAdvanced, they have a platform ready to support their future growth; giving staff and managers the tools, time, and confidence to focus on what matters most.

In Mairead's words

Reducing work, ensuring accuracy

"It wasn't that errors were happening. It was that there was so much work being done to make sure errors didn't happen, which now doesn't have to happen."

Intuitive and user-friendly platform

"The platform is so clean and intuitive - click here, click there. It doesn't require much training, which really sets it apart."

Empowering managers with ownership

"Time & Attendance has created massive efficiencies and given line managers real ownership of their departments, helping them manage their teams better."

Quick and reliable support

"The support has been excellent. Even for low-priority requests, the team responds quickly, which is really reassuring."
